Introduction

Welcome to this service, which marks both a new sphere of ministry in the life of your new Rector and a new chapter in the worship and life of this parish. It is fitting, therefore, that we come together with the Bishop and representatives of our partner churches to offer ourselves afresh to God for the work of the Gospel.

We approach God most appropriately at the beginning of worship in praise and confession. The new Rector designate is then introduced and presented to the Bishop and people. The Declaration of Assent and the Oaths to the Sovereign and Diocesan Bishop are required by law and give us assurance of the trustworthiness of his ministry.

A reading from God's word to us from the Bible is followed by a sermon, in which the same word is given relevance for this time and place.

As we pray together for the grace and power of the Holy Spirit, the Bishop licenses the new Rector designate and blesses him, together with all who minister here. As the Bishop is Patron, he then collates the new Rector by praying together with him to the Holy Spirit and giving him the Cure of Souls. Following the installation of the new Rector, he is welcomed by the community and all are invited to greet one another in the exchange of the Peace.

Because ministry and mission is not the prerogative of one person but the privilege of all the baptised, the following Act of Commitment reflects this collaboration between priest and people. It is meaningful that your new Rector is described sometimes as an evangelist or a teacher or as president during this act of commitment. These titles emphasise the differing gifts that are needed by the people of God in their Christian witness. Because your Rector is described as 'among the people', it emphasises the responsibility of the whole worshipping community to work together for spiritual and numerical growth.

Water, representing our baptism at the start of our Christian journey, is brought forward to the new Rector and then poured into the font.

All commit themselves to making new disciples as partners in mission.

The Bible, in which God's word is uniquely revealed to us in Jesus the Word of God, is brought forward to the new Rector and then placed upon the lectern.

All commit themselves to going deeper into God as partners in mission.

Bread and wine, recalling the Holy Communion, in which Jesus the Bread of Life comes to us, are presented to the Rector and then placed upon the altar.

All commit themselves to the transformation of our communities by the presence of Christ in us as Christians together.

Prayers are then led by the new Rector and lay people. The service concludes with the blessing by the Bishop of the people and parish.

Preface

Bishop

We have come together to worship God and to celebrate the ministry of the whole people of God in this place.
God blesses his people with a rich variety of gifts and it is our duty and our joy to use those gifts to extend God's kingdom in the world.

Today we welcome Alex and Emily to this benefice and license
Alex at the beginning of his ministry among us.
Together we dedicate ourselves to the service of God in these communities, and listen afresh to God's call to each one of us to go deeper into God, make new disciples and transform the community.

So let us first wait humbly upon God, giving thanks for all that He has done to bring us to this moment.

Silence is kept

Confession

Mindful of God's blessings, let us now ask forgiveness for those times we have neglected God's call or failed in our service of one another and our communities.

Please sit or kneel forgive us when we make it hard for others to share our worship.

Christ, have mercy

All Christ, have mercy

forgive our self-centred hoarding of riches we have received.
Lord, have mercy

All Lord, have mercy

that he sent his Son to be our Saviour, forgive you your sins
and make you holy to serve him in the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord,

Bishop Heavenly Father,
we gather in your name with thankfulness and praise for the continuing ministry of your Church in this place, for all who have been raised up in times past to serve you here,

that we may give ourselves in love and service to one another and to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Declaration of Assent and the Oaths

Bishop In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, I shall now license Alex Leslie Wheatley Clerk in Holy Orders, as Incumbent of this benefice, but first let Declaration of Assent be made and subscribed, and the Oaths be taken according to law.

The Incumbent designate, accompanied by the Archdeacon, stands before the Bishop

The Bishop addresses the Incumbent designate

The Church of England is part of the One, Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church worshipping the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It professes the faith uniquely revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the Catholic Creeds, which faith the Church is called upon to proclaim afresh in each generation. Led by the Holy Spirit, it has borne witness to Christian truth in its historic formularies, the Thirty-Nine Articles of Religion, the Book of Common Prayer, and the Ordering of Bishops, Priests and Deacons. In the Declaration you are about to make, will you affirm your loyalty to this inheritance of faith as your inspiration and guidance under God, in bringing the grace and truth of Christ to this generation and making Him known to those in your care?

The Incumbent designate affirms, saying

I, Alex Leslie Wheatley, do so affirm, and accordingly declare my belief in the faith which is revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the Catholic Creeds, and to which the historic formularies of the Church of England bear witness; and in public prayer and administration of the Sacraments, I will use only the forms of service which are authorised or allowed by Canon.

Taking a New Testament, he turns to the people and says

I, Alex Leslie Wheatley, swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law: so help me God.

Holding the New Testament, he turns to the Bishop and says

I, Alex Leslie Wheatley, do swear by Almighty God that I will pay true and canonical obedience to the Lord Bishop of St Albans and his successors in all things lawful and honest: so help me God.

The Archdeacon receives the Bible from the Incumbent designate

The new Incumbent designate signs the Declarations

The Collect

Please stand if you able

Bishop The Lord be with you

All And also with you

Silence is kept

The following Collect is said

Almighty and everlasting God, we thank you that, through your Son, you have called us into the fellowship of your universal church:
hear our prayer, which we offer for all your faithful people, that each in their vocation and ministry may be an instrument of love, and give to your servant, Alex, now to be collated, the needful gifts of grace, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever.

All Amen

The Liturgy of the Word

Reading

The Revd Ruth Harris reads from John 8:31-42

Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?"

Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are descendants of Abraham; yet you look for an opportunity to kill me, because there is no place in you for my word. I declare what I have seen in the Father's presence; as for you, you should do what you have heard from the Father."

They answered him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are indeed doing what your father does." They said to him, "We are not illegitimate children; we have one father, God himself." Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now I am here. I did not come on my own, but he sent me.

Sermon

A sermon is preached by The Venerable Dave Middlebrook, Archdeacon of Bedford

The Collation (licensing)

The Bishop invites the congregation to observe a period of silent prayer

The Bishop then kneels besides the Incumbent designate and silence is kept

We pray as we listen to a recording

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light the dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face with the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home:
where thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
and thee of both, to be but one;
That through the ages all along this may be our endless song:

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen

Words: Latin, ninth century
